The fact that up to this time . web an bere. hospital has not been greatly needed should be a strong reason for speedily 1 paring one. As, having been up to this tim so highly favored with exemption from such diseases, we may not rationally hope much longer to be so blessed; as experience proves that, in the long run, we must have our due a le share of them. Washington is fast becoming a large city, and is, by degrees, getting in its midst the thousand incentives to the prevalence of pestilential diseases which are com. mon to other American cities. There is, probably, not another city of its size in the Union, which is not at this time provided with a pest-house, such as the Board of Health earnestly ask the Councils to establish here. Their constituents look to them with much solicitude, indeed, to carry out this necessary and truly philanthropic recommendation.

THE RETREAT AT ST. MATTHEW'S .- It will be recollected that a week previous to Saturday last, a spiritual retreat commenced at St Matthew's (Catholic) church, in this city. It has been very successful and interesting, indeed, immense throngs being constantly in attendance. This is the second week of the Association a beautiful block of marble on the oct 25-tr jubilee. Last night, Rev. Mr. Boyle, of St. Patrick's, preached an excellent sermon to a very large and deeply interested congregation. To-night, Rev. Mr. King, of Georgetown College, preaches; and to-morrow night, Rev. Mr. Boyle again addresses the congregation there. Rev. Jno. P. Donelan, who now has a circuit in St. Mary's county, Md., is to officiate on Wednesday night. It will be recollected that Mr. D. ranks as one of the ablest preachers of his denomination in this country. Mr. Boyle Odd Fellows' Hall at the Navy Yard. his denomination in this country. Mr. Boyle again officiates on Friday; and on Saturday evening the jubilee ends. We have not heard who is to preach on that occasion, though we hope it may be Rev. Mr. McGuire. All these reverend gentlemen are justly distinguished as preachers of the gospel of Christ, and possess widespread influence, more especially among those of their own religious faith.

WEO SAYS TURKEY ?-On Saturday last, a battalion of turkeys, five hundred strong, marched in a very dignified and precise manner indeed through Pennsylvania avenue. The host was marshalled by half a dosen magnificent looking goblers, who bore themsalves like veritable lieutenant-generals, every one of them. Their destination was the charming little farm of Mr. Henry A. KINGSTON, C. W., Nov. 11.-Last night two destructive fires occurred here. The first broke out at one o'clock in the "checkered" store, corner of Princess and Bagot streets. The 3econd fire commenced at four o'clock. in the George Astembly Rooms, corner of Wellington and Barrett streets, and destroyed the entire corner block, Meagher's buildings, two stone houses, and four buildings on Ridout street.
